WHAT IS THE Thermal Insulation Association of Canada

TIAC is the national industry association for contractors, distributors and manufacturers of commercial, industrial and institutional thermal insulation, asbestos abatement and firestop.

VISION

We envision a world where mechanical insulation stands at the forefront of climate rehabilitation and carbon emissions reduction, emphasizing thermal efficiency to create a more sustainable world without sacrificing industry.

MISSION

We aim to ensure the continuous, highly efficient, and safe operation of all mechanical systems across Canada's industrial, institutional, and commercial sectors. By achieving this, we intend to reduce carbon emissions and therefore change the perception of the mechanical insulation industry from incidental to preeminent and mandatory.

PURPOSE

We continually forge, support, and promote a community of experts rallied around advancing the thermal insulation industry. Through dynamic education, relentless innovation, fostering industry growth and standards development, TIAC empowers and assists its members to collectively create a healthier, more efficient world.
